Dear Sir:

Through a misunderstanding, your letter of September has received no reply.

We are in no need of anyone to make prints of coins here. We have a very good method ourselves whenever we have occasion to make reprdductions. As a matter of fact, we photograph nearly everything.

If you have any coins for sale, we might be interested in purchasing them. I notice a number of rubbings of pieces which we have not as yet represented in our Museum - particularly some of the very modern pieces, and some from Singkiang.

Very truly yours,

Curator
